ORAL ORDER

(Passed on 14th of December 2005)

The trial Judge has rejected the application filed by the petitioner-plaintiff under Order 39 Rules 1 and 2 of CPC. When that order was called in question before the learned appellate Judge, he, too, without finding any merit has dismissed the appeal. Being aggrieved by the above orders, this petition is filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India.

(2) Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner, I do not find any jurisdictional flaw or error apparent on the face of the record. I also do not find any perversity in the findings recorded by the trial Judge, as affirmed by the appellate Judge. The writ petition is, therefore, dismissed. There shall be no order as to costs.
